CORAM : R.M.S. KHANDEPARKAR &
NARESH H. PATIL, JJ.

DATE : 17TH AUGUST, 2006

P.C. :

1. The learned Advocate General appearing for the Respondents states on instructions that the Respondents have considered the request on behalf of the Petitioner to opt for a voluntary retirement instead of the decision of the administration for dismissal of the Petitioner. He further submits that in case necessary representation in that regard is made by the Petitioner within one week, the same would be considered as expeditiously as possible and possibly within eight weeks.

2. We accept the statement on behalf of the Respondents and on such statement being made, the learned counsel for the Petitioner, on instructions, craves leave to withdraw the Petition with liberty to make such representation for due consideration thereof by the High Court Administration in terms of the statement made by the learned Advocate General. The Petition, while accepting the said statement, stands disposed of as withdrawn with the said liberty. Rule stands discharged. No order as to costs.
